What could you do differently if you knew what the whole world was thinking ... all of the time?

The Gallup World Poll is the single most accurate source of global behavioral economic data in existence today. You can drive change with the Gallup World Poll.

Global “Core” Question Items

The Gallup World Poll asks core question items in more than 140 countries around the world. These questions measure the most essential and critical thoughts and actions of the world’s citizens.

Region-Specific Question Items

Additionally, the World Poll asks questions in specific regions that measure opinions about issues that have greater impact on those areas of the world.

The following pages include some of the overall and region-specific core World Poll question items.
